

GETTING STUFF SORTED WITH SOMEONE

follow the winding path to see what can be done . . .

What happened? .....

1. Who is wrong do you think? You, the other person, both?

-----

2. If you're wrong, will you say sorry to the other person? Why or why not?

-----

3. If the person is wrong, will you forgive them? Why or why not?

(Forgive is like being big enough not to hold a grudge against someone)

-----

-----

4. If you don't say sorry, what may happen because of that?

-----

5. If you don't forgive, what may happen because of that?

-----

6. It helps when someone else you both trust tries to sort it. Up for that?
